28th Sunday After Pentecost

From the Desk of the Pastor

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

A couple weeks ago Halyna and I had a chance to enjoy a three day visit to Washington, DC; while there we visited the National Gallery of Art. I really like the Impressionists and, so was very pleased to see an original painting done by the now famous Dutch painter, Vincent Van Gogh. Not a few days passed after returning home and we saw an international story about a collection of his lost sketches which have now been made available for purchase in book format. The fame around this man continues to grow over a century after his death. He produced more than 1,700 paintings and drawings in his lifetime. Despite this, did you know that he sold only one of them – for a mere $85?

Van Gogh died thinking he was a failure. Yet, a century later his painting Dr. Gachet sold for $82.5 million. Van Gogh never saw in his lifetime what he hoped to see. He never heard what he hoped to hear. Yet, like the prophets and kings of old, he stayed the course. The story of Van Gogh prompts me to ask: what is my chief motivation in staying the course which I am pursuing?

As Christians, we are in hot pursuit of God's Kingdom. That is our motivation. Do our possessions help us to that end or do they distract us? In today's Gospel, our lovely Jesus says this to us, "Be dressed ready for service and keep your lamps burning, like servants waiting for their master to return from a wedding banquet, so that when he comes and knocks they can immediately open the door for him.... You also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him." (Luke 12: 35, 40). Today is the first Sunday in St. Philip's Fast, and as such this reading reminds us to prepare ourselves for Christ's coming, to ask ourselves what is our motivation for staying the course? Why do we come to church every Sunday? Like Van Gogh, we have very little to gain in this world from this pursuit of ours. Unlike Van Gogh, we are certain that greatness awaits each of us after this life when Jesus establishes his Kingdom. What prevents me from pursuing this goal with more zeal? These weeks leading up to Christmas are a wonderful time to prepare our souls for His coming and to purify our motivation.

In Christ,

Jason, priest and sinner

Excerpt from Christ Our Pascha

Sin is, first of all, a person's state that manifests itself in actions, and a sinful deed is the conscious and voluntary violation of God's commandment. Violation of even one of God's commandments is a violation of all of God's Law. "For whoever keeps the whole law but fails in one point has become accountable (guilty) for all of it. For he who said, 'You shall not commit adultery,' also said, 'You shall not murder.' Now if you do not commit adultery but if you murder, you have become transgressor of law" (Jas2:10-11). As one illness can cause another, so one soon leads to another. Saint John of Damascus emphasizes that there are eight evil "thoughts" (in Creek, logismoj), that give rise to sin: gluttony, lust, avarice(love of money), melancholy, anger, acedia (depondency), vain glory and pride. We call them the capital sins as they are the root of all other sinful acts. (# 758)
