18th Sunday After Pentecost

From the Desk of the Pastor

Dear Friends in Christ,

If you're a lover of poetry, and when you hear today's Gospel in which Jesus tells Peter that he will become a fisher of men, then you may wish to read this poem. Get your scissors ready and your refrigerator magnets out. This is a keeper!

*I had walked life's path with an easy tread,
Had followed where comfort and pleasure led;
And then by chance in a quiet place –
I met my Master face to face.*

*With station and rank and wealth for goal,
Much thought for body but none for soul,
I had entered to win this life's mad race –
When I met my Master face to face.*

*I had built my castles, reared them high,
Their towers had pierced the blue of the sky;
I had sworn to rule with an iron mace –
When I met my Master face to face.*

*I met Him and knew Him, and blushed to see,
That His eyes full of sorrow were fixed on me;
And I faltered, and fell at His feet that day,
My castles vanished and melted away.*

*Melted and vanished; and in their place,
I saw naught else but my Master's face;
And I cried: "Oh, make me meet,
To follow the marks of Thy wounded feet."
My thought is now for the souls of men;
I have lost my life to find it again
Ever since alone in that holy place,
My Master and I stood face to face.*
